ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

MEANING-MAKING IN THE PANDEMIC CLASSROOM

THE EDUCATOR WITHIN

Meaning-making is an essential factor in the personal and academic development of students. The first part of the workshop lays down the foundation of meaning-making in education, whereas the second part uses the TEAL approach to involve participants in the meaning-making process.Participants leave with practical tips that they may be able to apply in their virtual/actual classrooms.

WORKSHOP TOPICS

- Meaning-making in the Pandemic Classroom
- The Personal/Professional divide
- Scholarly Personal Narrative (SPN) and the TEAL Approach
- Why our Stories Matter in Academia
- Unleash Meaning-making in the Classroom and beyond

WHO IS THIS WORKSHOP FOR?

This workshop is aimed at school and university educators, yet anyone involved in education in our current times will find it enriching.

TEAL

WHO IS TEAL?

Teal is a Beirut-based consultancy that works with schools, universities, start-ups, organizations, NGOs and individuals to help them use strategic purposeful storytelling for personal and professional transformation, collecting actionable knowledge, engaging with the targeted community and inspiring action!
